Getting to Know You

The background image shows a blurred scene of people at a voting station. Several individuals are standing behind metal voting booths. Each booth has a white sign with the word 'VOTE' printed on it. An American flag is visible in the background, partially obscured by the booths. The overall scene is brightly lit, suggesting an indoor setting like a school or community center.

Door-Knocking Techniques

These are the best techniques to use:

- Ring the door bell
- Step away from the door 3 - 6 feet
- Take off your hat & sunglasses
- Give them your spiel (don't worry if you mess up)
- If they respond yes, mark down their info (sign?... donation?... volunteer?)
- If they respond no, politely say thank you and move on.

Page 11

Codes & HOAs

Many cities and counties have codes regarding solicitation, but almost all of the except political solicitation. Be sure and check your city and county codes to make sure that you aren't trespassing. This is about connecting with the voter, not antagonizing them.

HOAs and Apartment complexes and gated communities may have their own codes and enforcement. The best solution for these residences is to recruit a resident who can then check with their association or regulations and can work these residences easier and better.

It is a Federal Crime ($10,000/per incident) to place anything that isn't U. S. Mail in a mailbox. I usually tape to glass, that won't peel but will be seen.

Working your precinct the first time is the hardest trip through your area you will make. You're learning the lay of the land and your subsequent walks will be much easier.

Here are some helpful connecting tools and ideas:

- Start a Facebook Page or Group. This will be a great place for people to drop in, and once they like your group, private message them for contact information so that you can send more “conservative” ideas without having to be canceled by Facebook or Twitter. Email is an excellent way to stay in touch.
- Write Emails regularly, and be a leader with useful information like School board meetings, House or Senate legislators in the area for Town Halls, even simple pot-luck get togethers are sufficient to keep the connection alive.
- The biggest question you will get is WHO DO I VOTE FOR?

Resources for Your Voters & You

Here are some of my go-to resources for information:

- Oklahoma Supreme Court Network
- The Guardian
- The Oklahoma Secretary of State
- Oklahoma Voter Portal
- OKRedPrecincts.com

Page 13

Stay in Contact with your Precinct

- Facebook Group - generate contact info
- Email
- Truth Social
- Telegram - Chat Groups
- Get Togethers - local parks, backyards
- Guest Speakers - House Reps, State Reps, City Mayors, County Officials, Local Law Enforcement

BE CONTAGIOUS

- Enthusiasm is Contagious
- Connections bring more involvement
- Keep in contact - emails, private messaging
- HAVE FUN!

- The back of your booklet has my contact information and OkRedPrecincts.com information for McIntosh County.
